bert P. Bissell dissolved the injunction of the Chicago American League baseball team restraining Hal Chase, the first baseman, from playing with the Buffalo Federal League team. Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, came to Buffalo and engaged at-torneys to fight the action that followed. Long arguments were made on both sides. Justice Bissell's opinion covers twenty-five pages of typewritten copy. Chase, by means of the reserve clause in his contract, was bound to organized chase, by means of the reserve clause in his contract, was bound to organized baseball for life, while the ten-day release clause permitted the club to release him on ten day's notice. Justice Bissell held that the contract was not mutual and therefore not valid.

Griffmen Pound Joe Benz Hard in Six Innings. Score, 4 to 0.

ACOSTA HITS THE BALL

Young Cuban Gets Three Hits Out of Four Times Up-Gandil Comes Back.

By WILLIAM PEET.

After a long spell of weak and wobbly hitting, our gallant Griffmen got to-sether yesterday and with one accord jumped on Blitzen Joe Benz, landing right where the shirt ends and the collar begins, collecting thirteen hits and sending over four runs.

Walter Johnson was in his old-time form, allowing six bingles and assisting materially in smearing the 4 to 6 whitewash coat over the Callahan troupers from Chicago.

It was fine to see the great and only Walter mowing 'em down, but the sweet-est music of all was the ring of wood sgainst leather, and the apparent return of Chick Gandii to the demon slugging

Gandil's hitting of late has been wors than Chill's umpiring. But he looked good yesterday with a smoking triple and healthy single to his credit out of four times up.

Merito Acosta also made himself solid with the fans. The Cuban, in addition to handling four chances without an errer in left field, choked a triple and a pair of singles out of Benz. It will be remembered that Benz pitched almost a no-hit game against Johnson when the Nationals were in Chi-cago last month, but he did not show a whole lot of stuff here yesterday after

Bens Is Batted Hard.

During the six innings Benz occupied the center of the diamond he was whacked for thirteen hits, yet the best Washington could gather in the shape of runs was four tallies. Despite the wasted ammunition, the Griffmen looked better than at any time the past ten days. Danny Moeller, Shanks, and Ping Bodie were the bright luminaries in the fielding line. Bodie raced back almost to the scoreboard in the first inning, pulling down a long drive from Gandil, the ball traveling much further than Chick's three-bagger later in the game. Morgan's negligence in failing to touch the plate while sliding home in the sec-ond inning robbed the Nationals of a run. Ray had the throw from Bodle beaten, but after he had slid over the plate Schalk tagged him with the ball, and O'Loughlin ruled Morgan out.

The White Sox filled the bases in the second before anybody had been retired, when Fournier dumped a clean single to left. Bodie and Schalk follow-

Bens' liner, retiring the side. Nationals Score in Fourth.

The Nationals first run came in the fourth inning. Gandil shot a triple to left center, and breezed over on Morgan's single through the box. Benz' finish came in the sixth, when he was reached for five good, solid whacks, three tailies spilling across the rubber. Shanks opened with a single. Morgan sacrificed him to second. McBride tripled
